Preface

Paradigm shift in forest policy from revenue generation to conservation and increased emphasis on involvement of people in forest management has thrown a lot of challenges before the foresters. Coupled with it is the need to ensure that our forestry practices are in accordance with sub-continental and global developments in ecological and environmental areas. As a result the foresters of today are required to play multifarious roles to deal with a variety of externalities and also not losing sight of traditional forest management practices at the same time. It is, thus, the need of the hour to ensure effective and befitting training, orientation and specialization for the foresters at all levels.

The Directorate of Forest Education's primary mandate is to conduct induction and in-service training for SFS Officers/FROs and also to support in-service training for Forest Frontline Staff (Dy. Rangers / Foresters / Forest Guards). Thus, the Directorate plays a crucial role in keeping the forest management of our country up to date and modern through training management.

The Government of India through this Directorate supplements the efforts of State Governments for capacity building of the frontline forest staff (Deputy Rangers/ Foresters/ Forest Guards) by providing funds to organise short-term training courses of the concerned State Forest Department. This Directorate has got such courses organised in almost every state of the country and there has been wide spread appreciation of the same.

The Director's Report - 2017 of the DFE is a compilation of all the activities of the Directorate and its constituent Academies during the year 2016-2017.

(Director)

The post of Director Forest Education was created in the year 1953 to assist the President, Forest Research Institute and Colleges and was responsible for professional and technical training/education in the country. Subsequent to re-organization of Forestry Research, Education and Training Institutions in 1987, the erstwhile Indian Forest College got upgraded to Indira Gandhi National Forest Academy. Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education was created as an autonomous body under the MoEF&CC to organize, direct and manage research in Forest Sector at National Level.

The Directorate of Forest Education was separated as an independent organization under the direct control of MoEF&CC for the training of State Forest Service officers and Forest Range Officers. The Directorate also supplements the efforts of the State Governments for the training of Frontline Forest Staff (Deputy Rangers, Foresters and Forest Guards).

- ☞ To assist in the development of training policy for forestry personnel.

Presently the Directorate directly controls three Central Academies for State Forest Service, at Dehradun (Uttarakhand), Coimbatore (Tamil Nadu) and Burnihat (Assam) and one Central Academy of Forest Education (CAFE) at Kurseong (West Bengal).

The Directorate also exercises, technical control over all the State run Rangers Colleges in the country. All these Academies/Colleges/Institutes/Schools undertake the activities concerning induction and in-service training of SFS Officers and FROs and short term General Refresher Courses, Theme Based Courses of two week duration, One week workshop for in-service SFS Officers and FROs as per their respective mandate.

Following the reorganization of Forest Research Institute and Colleges and creation of Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education (ICFRE) as an autonomous organization, the Directorate of Forest Education was delinked from the Forest Research Institute and Colleges. It has since then functioned directly under the Ministry of Environment, Forest & Climate Change.

To cater to the increasing demand of the State Forest Departments and Central forestry organization for trained Officers, three State Forest Service Colleges were established by the Central Government at Burnihat (Assam) in 1976, Coimbatore (Tamil Nadu) in 1980 and Dehradun (Uttarakhand) in 1981 for imparting training to the State Forest Service Officers of two years duration.

These colleges were managed by the Government of India and had a training program of 2 years. After 1987, the erstwhile Eastern Forest Rangers' College, Kurseong now called as Central Academy of Forest Education (CAFE) is the only Rangers college under the Government of India training Forest Range Officers.

General Refresher Course

The General Refresher Course is designed in a way to refresh the professional skills of the in-service officers and also to help them keep abreast of the sector at all levels, including regional, national and international issue e.g. Protected Area management, biodiversity conservation, global warming etc. in forestry and related disciplines. This two week course is generally recommended for promoted officers SFS or FRO cadres.

Legal Issues in Forestry and Wildlife

The ever-increasing population is bringing pressure on space and resources of mega cities. The smaller towns have also started feeling the pinch. The forest, its resources and wildlife are no exception to this phenomenon. Often, violation of various provisions of Acts, Rules and Regulations governing forest, protected areas, wildlife, etc. are seen and they are showing an increasing trend. Apart from prevention and early detection of various forest and wildlife offences, it is also imperative to achieve the maximum penalty on the offenders. Ultimately, effective prosecution of offenses in present and as in the past, is the biggest deterrent for future offenders. This scenario is throwing open a challenge before the personnel manning the forests and wildlife to upgrade and update their legal knowledge and acumen. These aspects including knowledge, skills and right interpretation of extant Acts, Rules and Procedures have been kept in view while preparing this course.

Training of Trainers

There is an ever-emerging challenge of capacity building of the trainers who join the State Forest Training Institutes from organization postings. It is proposed to respond to this need of Training of Trainers with a systematic approach to training which has been spearheaded by the Department of Personnel and Training of the Government of India, for more than two decades now.

The success of training depends upon identification of training needs to make it demand-driven, scientifically design suitable demands of change, deliver effectively with learner-centered approach and monitor/evaluate for further value-addition. In addition mentoring and facilitation has become an integral part of functioning. All these aspects and latest trends in training have been kept in view while preparing this course.

Human Resource Management

For achieving effective management of the forest resources one of the important issues to be analyzed is existing human resource capabilities and how to build upon them. The performance in Forest Departments of the States depends on the collective contributions of all the officers/ officials. The approach for capacity building of the forestry personnel for protection, conservation and sustainable management of forest resources, using appropriate technology at the same time developing an attitude of working with the stakeholders, is required to be institutionalized. It involves judicious use of authority and keeping the workforce motivated for the effective management of resources.

Wildlife Management

The ever increasing human population is mounting pressure on natural resources including forest and wildlife since long. It is of paramount importance to conserve and sustain the wildlife for the existence of mankind. Though it is very difficult to envisage co-existence of man and animal in present socio-economic human controlled environment, but the exclusive domain of wildlife can be maintained in these natural ecosystems.

Community Forestry and Joint Forest Management

The importance of the social dimension of forestry in today's world need not be overtly emphasized. With human population exploding across the globe, the pressure on forests for meeting the needs of fuel wood, fodder, timber has proportionately expanded. The stresses on natural ecosystems due to anthropogenic pressure have assumed dimensions of war not struggle for survival for the natural ecosystems and its myriad inhabitants. A recognition of the human dimension of forestry led to the implementation of Social and community forestry programmes in the 1970s and 80s. A further recognition of the people's rights on forests and their role in forestry came in the form of Joint Forest Management (JFM) resolution in 1991.

The Field Forester is an educational e-journal launched by the Directorate of Forest Education, Dehradun seeking to inculcate reading and writing habits amongst officer trainees as well as serving foresters of state forest departments through a new popular educational e-journal named "FIELD FORESTER". E-Journal

FIELD FORESTER

VOICES FROM THE FIELD

Contributions Invited

The Field Forester invites articles from serving as well as retired forest officers and others working in the forestry sector. The Field Forester offers a unique platform for forestry professionals to share their work and experiences. The article should be interesting and entertaining to read and should be written in a lively and concise style.

Evaluation and Review System

There will be two layers of review of the contributions; Faculty and the Directorate review. Evaluation and review at the faculty level in the training institutes/academies will be undertaken under the guidance of Director/Principal/Head of the institutions. Even very specialized and technical topics shall be presented in simplified format so that frontline staff and forest community are able to appreciate and understand the topics. Articles shall be written in a popular style, easily understandable and in simple English.

However depending on the response to this programme, arrangements can be made for translation of the magazine into the vernacular. A short note about the contributor and the reviewer shall accompany the article. The note shall contain name, age, postal and e-mail address, course, academic accomplishments, and important assignments held. The evaluation would be done on following criteria:

a. Style: The article should be interesting and informative. The introduction should draw the reader in and convince them that the remainder is worth reading. The remaining should be written in a lively and concise style, and should leave the reader convinced of the importance of the topic.

b. Structure: The article should be within 1000 words, and formatted in 1.5 line spacing in Times New Roman 12 point font.

c. Organization:

- ▶ Instead of an abstract the article will give information on the location, the period when the field work was carried out.
- ▶ Integration - the article organized in a coherent form and all ideas are clearly leading to a single main argument.

The review at the Directorate level will be done through an editorial board constituted by the DFE, which will be responsible for the content, design and review of the journal articles. The editorial board shall consist of expert/experts constituted by DFE and reconstituted every year, which would screen contributions and recommend their publication. Articles previously published elsewhere, or simultaneously sent for publication elsewhere, may be accepted with modifications. Article submitted shall carry a declaration that the article is original. The Editor would reserve the right to reject articles without assigning any reason and articles not found suitable will be sent back.

Note: Articles may be sent at the following email ID: editorfieldforester@gmail.com
